LEONARDO TALARICO

“I design to innovate, my approach to the project is essential.” Leonardo Talarico (Milan, 1988) is an Italian designer and creative director. His approach to design is one of extreme reduction that aims to highlight a very subtle personal style focused on giving importance to the remaining details. Case da Abitare magazine included him between the “15 Italian Talents under the age of 35”, Para Ti Deco inserted him as 1 of the 5 International Young designers that will improve our lives with their projects. He has worked with many prestigious firms from the design industry such as Cappellini, Tod’s, Mercedes-Benz, Alcantara, HenryTimi and his products have been presented during the Design Week in Milan, Paris, London and New York.”
